Closing Prayer

Lord, I pray that I become so convicted in the things that you have for me that I no longer wonder but believe in their arrival in my life. I promise to move at the first sight of opportunity to make them come to pass and to do so with such focus and faith that one would think I am holding them in my hand at this very moment. I rejoice now, because I know to be grateful for what I have pleases you. So, I give thanks for what is to come as if it has already come to pass.

In Jesus Name, Amen!
